HIST 350 · GROUP 4 · MORGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

THE NAME CHANGES. THE FUNCTION DOES NOT.

"Slavery was abolished, but the logic of controlling and extracting from Black bodies was rebuilt in new legal form."

SIX AREAS OF CONTROL · THREE PILLARS · ONE CONTINUOUS LINE

OPENING QUESTION / CASE FILE 01

If slavery was abolished in 1865, why did prisons become overrun with Black bodies?

THE ANSWER IS ASSEMBLED ACROSS TEN PANELS →

SLAVERY & THE RACIAL ORDER

Built to extract labor from Black bodies — and deny their humanity.

Enslaved people were deemed property, not persons: a fabricated rationale that kept the economic engine running. Counterpoint: only a tiny share of Africans in the Atlantic trade landed in North America.

THE 13TH AMENDMENT LOOPHOLE

Emancipation arrived with an exception written into it.

The clause closes one door and leaves another open. Read it slowly — especially the comma before "except." This is the hinge of the whole board.

> Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime … shall exist within the United States.
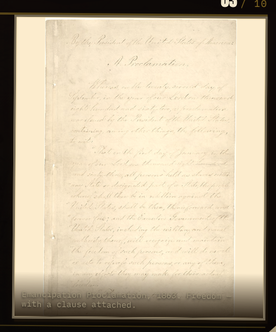
>
> U.S. CONST. AMEND. XIII, § 1 (1865)



The 13th Amendment, 1865. Freedom with a clause attached.

1865–66 · RECONSTRUCTION — 04 / 10

BLACK CODES & VAGRANCY

Freedom was re-criminalized. Black life became presumptively illegal.

Unemployment, loitering, migration became crimes. Any infraction — even an unpaid fine — rolled into forced labor. Same machine, new form.

> …convicted of petty crimes, like walking on the grass, vagrancy, and stealing food… Even those declared innocent were often placed in this system when they could not pay their court fees.

CONVICT LEASING

The plantation was rebuilt behind prison walls — and it turned a profit.

States leased Black convicts to plantations, mines and railroads. Brutal mortality produced profit for the state and for industry. By 1900 Black people were a large majority of Southern convicts.

1890S–1960S · JIM CROW — 06 / 10

THE ACCUSATION

Criminal accusation became the justification for racial terror.

The "Black rapist" myth — manufactured in media and politics — justified chain gangs, racialized policing and lynching. No trial. No evidence. Just the charge. Graphic photographs omitted by design.

The overseer's variable judgment became the algorithm's baked-in bias.

COMPAS recidivism scoring, predictive policing, facial recognition. The bias moves from a person to a system that hides behind math — race-neutral on paper, not in outcome.

TULSA [illegible]

BRAZIL & ARGENTINA · 1871–PRESENT — 09 / 10

FREE, BUT BOUND

The U.S. is one example of a Diaspora pattern: emancipation produces new coercion.

Brazil's Law of the Free Womb (1871) "freed" newborns but bound them to their masters until 21. Argentina's liberto system conditioned freedom on military service. Afro-Argentine history was written out.
