"Slavery was abolished, but the logic of controlling and extracting from Black bodies was rebuilt in new legal form."

OPENING QUESTION / WHY THIS BOARD

If slavery was abolished in 1865, why did prisons become overrun with Black bodies?

SLAVERY & THE RACIAL ORDER

Built to extract labor from Black bodies — and deny their humanity.

Enslaved people were deemed property, not persons: a fabricated rationale that kept the economic engine running. Counterpoint: only a tiny share of Africans in the Atlantic trade landed in North America.

BLACK CODES & VAGRANCY

Freedom was re-criminalized. Black life became presumptively illegal.

Unemployment, loitering, migration became crimes. Any infraction — even an unpaid fine — rolled into forced labor. Same machine, new form.

> ...convicted of petty crimes, like walking on the grass, vagrancy, and stealing food... Even those declared innocent were often placed in this [illegible] when they could not pay their fines.

CONVICT LEASING

The plantation was rebuilt behind prison walls — and it turned a profit.

States leased Black convicts to plantations, mines and railroads. Brutal mortality produced profit for the state and for industry. By 1900 Black people were a large majority of Southern convicts.

THE ACCUSATION

Criminal accusation became the justification for racial terror.

The "Black rapist" myth — manufactured in media and politics — justified chain gangs, racialized policing and lynching. No trial. No evidence. Just the charge. Graphic photographs omitted by design.

COMPAS recidivism scoring, predictive policing, facial recognition. The bias moves from a person to a system that hides behind math — race-neutral on paper, not in outcome.

FREE, BUT BOUND

The U.S. is one example of a Diaspora pattern: emancipation produces new coercion.

Brazil's Law of the Free Womb (1871) "freed" newborns but bound them to their masters until 21. Argentina's liberto system conditioned freedom on military service. Afro-Argentine history was written out.
